We no longer automatically reissue Business Employee Deposit Cards and Associate Debit Cards

We wanted to remind you that we no longer automatically reissue Business Employee Deposit Cards and Associate Debit Cards when they expire.

To request a new card for an employee or contractor, a signer needs to call the number on the back of the card or visit a branch.

The signer will need to provide the following information for the employee or contractor who is getting the card:

- Legal name,
- Date of birth, and
- Residential address

Additionally, all new Business Employee Deposit Cards and Associate Debit Cards now have a term of two years.

These changes are meant to help ensure that access to your Chase business deposit account is only available to active, authorized users.

If you have questions, please call us anytime at the number listed on this statement.

We updated our Deposit Account and Wire Transfer Agreements

November 01, 2018 through November 30, 2018

Account Number: 000000793332557

- We updated our Wire Transfer Agreement, here's what you should know:
 - You will still receive email notifications on the status of your wire transfer. However, we added that if we're unable to send an email due to system failures or outages, it's your responsibility to monitor your account for the status of your wire transfer.
 - We clarified that you should expect your foreign exchange rate to be less favorable than rates quoted online or in publications.
